

WESTERN HORSEMEN OF OREGON

September 2016 newsletter

JUNIOR DIRECTOR

Woohoo WHO Juniors! You guys showed up at Interstate in a big way! Way to ride not only fast, but smart! You are a big part of the reason Oregon won and you should all be very proud of how you all did. Big shout out to all of you that walked away with prizes, and I know there were lots of you!!! It feels like Interstate was here so fast and I am sure convention will be no different. For those of you graduating seniors you need to get your scholarship applications to me by 10/1/2016! Please find the application attached!

Also for our membership you will also find attached a copy of the WHO Junior Awards Ballots – that is a list of all of this years junior members. Please take the time to vote for this year's MOST IMPROVED JUNIOR, SPOTSMANSHIP JUNIOR and ROOKIE OF THE YEAR. Please have your votes to me no later than November 1 (you can vote by mailing me your ballot or emailing me your vote at toshaferrando@gmail.com – please do not vote by facebook as it gets to confusing when votes are coming in in so many different forms.

Tosha Ferrando

ROYALTY

Congratulations to our new Interstate Queen Emily Spence! And be watching for recently declared 2017 Princess Erica Henry at upcoming events.

REMINDERS

Gold Card, Hall of Fame, & Rule Proposals are due by October 1st. Forms and criteria or available on the website.

2016 Interstate pictures are available online at maneimagephotos.com. You can order by emailing themanimagephotography@hotmail.com or by a Facebook message.

MEMBER NEWS

Congratulations to Amber Moore & CP Dark Moon (Paige) on their AWESOME barrel run at Interstate. They ran a 13.608, breaking their own Interstate Senior Barrel record from last year of 13.971. Amber is also currently sitting 16th in the WPRA world standings.
